

The Horseshoe Bay membrane bioreactor has been commissioned and is consistently delivering excellent quality water for irrigation of the dry tropics wetland on the island foreshore. Commissioning was completed ahead of schedule and met quality requirements in record time.

The project has been very well received by the Magnetic Island community and was recently awarded the trophy for Best Public Sector Communication Program, Asia Pacific 2006, in addition to receiving widespread recognition through a number of other awards.